Genre: Crime / Film Noir / Mystery

Message: Solve the crime and see who put the bomb in the car

Lighting : focused flashlight / silhouette

Sound: Dialogue / main intro music / explosion

Movement : .gif / car driving / explosion

Time : 3-5 seconds intro loop , explosion,

Color : Black / White, Blue + Yellow

Font : True Crimes + Courier

Interactive elements: “Press to Start” , player flashes light on each window in the apartment building that overlooks the explosion. Each window has one witness character and we learn from them who might have done it.

Scene 1 - 3 : Animated Gif of title sequence. Sound : Main Intro music from film.

Scene 4 - 6 : Animation of car driving and then blowing up in front of building. Sound: Dialogue : “There is a ticking” driving sound and then blow up

Scene 7 + : Close up of the building that the car blew up in front of. Each window will have one of our “witnesses” in silhouette. The player uses a flashlight to shine on each window to show who they are. Each witness will say a line and explain who they think committed the crime. (gif / animation of the character with voiceover from film and / or recording) The player will guess who done it.

Credits: 4 stills from the film will swap as the credits scroll through. (the stills will be washed out and manipulated in PS)
